The Children's Ministry
presents

no wonder!

Sunday evening,
December 13
5:00 p.m.

Come, see how the children find unexpected joy as they realize that they are the church and "the church has left the building."

Please silence your cell phones and pagers and refrain from texting during services.

NURSERY PROVIDED
for ages 3 years and younger.
Ask a hostess for assistance.

From Our House To Yours

Christmas Card Delivery Service will once again be offered by our Hostesses for our Church of the CrossRoads family.

Bring your Christmas cards to the mail tables in the foyer and they will be sorted and delivered to your church family.

Please bring your cards as early as possible to help assure delivery. The last day to accept cards will be Wednesday, the 16th.

Cards for our Shut-ins

Christmas cards are needed for delivery to our nursing homes as Louise Smith visits the shut-ins this month. Please address your cards to "Merry Christmas". You may include a short message and your name on the inside of the card. There is a basket in the foyer for you to leave your cards. Please bring your cards by December 16

H.O.P.E. Food Ministry
Helping Other People Everyday

This benevolence program provides H.O.P.E. boxes that contain enough food to feed a family of four, three meals a day for one week.

Your support of this ongoing outreach program is especially important during this Christmas season when so many are in need of assistance from the church through His Compassionate Touch. Won't you help show the love of Christ this Christmas to families who are less fortunate than your family?

This week suggested meal donation is for

TUNA SANDWICHES

- (2) 6 oz. cans of TUNA
- (1) 16 oz. jar of MAYONNAISE
- (1) 10 oz. jar of DILL PICKLE RELISH
- (1) 16 oz. bag of PRETZELS

If you prefer, you may make a monetary (tax-deductible) donation to His Compassionate Touch .

We say. . .

MERRY CHRISTMAS
